

SUMMER AT YOUR LIBRARY

SECRET CODES

June 1 – July 31

To Participate: Secret Codes are an element of Corona's Summer Reading Challenge (SRC). Registration and participation is free for all ages at Corona.BookPoints.org.

Secret Codes: All ages can earn SRC points by participating in our online summer events at CoronaCA.gov/VirtualLaRS. Each event's downloadable Take Home Sheet will include a secret code that can be entered in your BookPoints dashboard.

Hidden Secret Codes: For an extra challenge, Dig Deeper and search for eighteen (18) secret codes hidden throughout our website and on our social media pages. To guide you, please see the back of this page for a checklist of riddles.

(951) 736-2381 • www.CoronaCA.gov/Library
650 S. Main St. Corona, CA 92882

HIDDEN CODES

Riddles Checklist

- This kind of book was made to connect you with your friends.
- It's the main place of the place on Main.
- I am a zippy passport to adventure.
- No adults allowed. No kids either.
- Like, comment, and subscribe.
- It's fine, really.
- Vacation destination: between the pages.
- A picture is worth a thousand words.
- Adulting can be hard sometimes.
- I say, "Thank you!" to our veterans.
- There are NO silly questions.
- Better than Google.
- Read, Play, Learn! The new #LaRSWhereUR.
- You can find Diary of a Wimpy Kid, Peppa Pig, and Dr. Seuss here.
- "Life's most persistent and urgent question is, what are you doing for others?" - MLK
- Create, innovate, collaborate.
- I let you hold as many books as you'd like in the palm of your hand.
- What can hold days, weeks, and months, but still fit on a table?